Mr. Marchant,

Please immediately remove the discriminatory content with my photo in your URL:

The proceedings against me have been discontinued. You have a copy of the court order.

My whole family unfortunately under this monstrous false report. To restore my good reputation,

I am otherwise forced to hire a law firm in the USA and sue you for 10 million dollars in compensation. Don't let it get to that in your own interest.

Sorry for my bad English.

Best regards,
Jürgen Wagentrotz

Mr. Wagentrotz,

We've been down this road before, specifically in November of last year when we were contacted by your attorney, Dr. Friederike Manz.

Our content will not be removed.

We will publish your most recent request, together with the "attached court order", and cross-link it to our existing content.

Sincerely,
